WHO WE ARE

Rune is a five piece progressive rock project that blends alt-rock urgency with a heady precision. Since 2014 they've been building a nuanced sound that oscillates between aggressive and melodic, utilizing a heavy guitar and rhythm section that harmonizes with intricate piano and passionate vocals.

Four years of consistent gigging and methodical songwriting culminated in the release of their debut self-titled EP in March of 2019. The selection represents the range of their material up to that point. The album opens with one of their oldest crowdpleasers "Song of a Bitch," and reaches a climax on the final track with the more recent and experimental "Giant." The album is an ode to their journey thus far, and an invitation to follow the band as they expand their style and shift their musical direction.

Rune returns to the stage on January 25th 2020 after a hiatus from performance, rewarding fans of their debut EP with a set that features old gems and a wealth of new material.

RECENT PRESS

"‘Somniferum’ is packed with attitude, lyrics snarled... ‘Origins’ and ‘Giant’ feel big and sound big... with keys and lighter vocal melodies that float above the chaos with [their] own intricate rhythm..."
